GOSNELLS' SECONDS KEEN

Gosnells Seconds will go into today's game full of confidence.

Having sustained only two defeats, both at the hands of Canning, the team has shown marked improvement in the last round.

In our final game against Mandurah, they showed that good football can be played in unsuitable conditions and bring a 20-goal victory.

One pleasing feature is the impressive display of the ruck-rovers, who are opening up the game in typical follow-on style, making scoring much easier.

A remarkable feature of this team is that nine players were members of last year's "C" grade premiership side.

Throughout the season they have not had the same team week after week, as a number of players have been called upon to bolster the league side.

Congratulations are extended to Kevin Cox, winner of the club fairest and best award. His fine performances in the many positions in which he had to play have been amply rewarded.

Tony Chandler, with 13 votes, recorded the highest total for the club in the league voting for the fairest and best trophy.

We are looking forward to an excellent game today from Gosnells and Canning.

—F. GREENWOOD, Coach.

ARMADALE WINS RUGGED SEMI

In a hard, rugged encounter in which there were many incidents, Armadale defeated Maddington at Gosnells last Sunday to win the right to play the loser of the Canning-Mandurah match on the same ground next Sunday, September 17.

Armadale was first to take the lead, when a two-kick attack from Onions to Anderson scored the first major in less than 20 seconds.

The lead changed several times in the match, which was safely secured for Armadale by ruck-back man George Cyprian, when he kicked the decisive goal 30 seconds before the final siren.

The game yielded some spasmodic flashes of good football, but rain, wet ground, greasy ball and, at times, unduly rugged tactics marred and affected play throughout.

FINAL SCORES

Armadale: 7.10 (52 points); Maddington: 6.6 (42 points).

BEST PLAYERS

Armadale: R. Anderson, G. Cyprian, K. Miller, M. Davies, B. Harvey, C. Lang.

Maddington: P. Coulthard, L. Clemesha, W. Henderson, M. White, H. Byrne and B. Ryan.

GOAL KICKERS

Armadale: R. Anderson 2, S. Quain, W. Reid, R. Green, K. Miller, G. Cyprian.

Maddington: P. Coulthard 2, H. Byrne, L. Thorn, M. Reynolds, L. Clemesha.

THE HAWKS REPORT

Congratulations to Eric Martin, who has been awarded the club fairest and best trophy. A popular member of the club, "Rowdy" quietly takes the field and plays a full 100 minutes of football. It is very satisfying to see a player of Eric's calibre win this trophy.

Kevin Cox has been named fairest and best for the seconds. Congratulations Kevin. A confident young player, Kevin should develop into a solid league player. He is also an enthusiastic helper on the social side of the club.

Other trophy winners will be announced at the wind-up on October 6.

Our sincere thanks to all those willing workers who helped on Sunday last.

Congratulations to Barry Williams on his recent engagement to Miss Beverley Wilkinson.

It was a pleasure to see Mr. Billy Orr present at the first semi-final. A well-known figure in football circles, Mr. Orr has been unable to take his usual interest in the game, because of ill-health.

Holidaying at the moment are Mr. and Mrs. C. Garrett, Mrs. P. Markham and Mrs. Tim Passmore.

It was with much sadness that we learnt of the death of Mrs. F. E. Matison. Many old supporters of the club will remember Mrs. Matison and also her late husband, Mr. J. O. Matison, as staunch supporters. Our sincerest sympathy goes to her family.

PINJARRA NOTES

After the game against Canning, club members and supporters were entertained on the property of Mr. Bethel Nancarrow at a barbecue tea.

We thank the Canning Club for making the effort to attend, they helped very much to make the evening go with a swing. Our thanks also go to Bethel; this function has been held at his place for many years now and it is much appreciated.

Congratulations to John McIntosh, his polling of 23 votes in the "Times" Footballer of the Year Trophy was a fine effort.

Another fine effort that perhaps has passed unnoticed is the polling of eight votes by Jim Tapper for the Thompson Trophy for the Footballer of the Year in the seconds competition. This season, Jim played three games only before being promoted to the league team.

Congratulations also go to one of our ex-players in Phil Woolhead, now the Hills Club. His efforts this year have been outstanding.

We were unfortunate enough to suffer another injury, our captain-coach Ray Criddle has an injured shoulder. We hope that it is much improved, Ray.

Before we leave, the Pinjarra Club would like to ask John Hilton, of Canning, where he got the idea that bluebellies are blue.

HILLS RUCKMAN WINS "TIMES" TROPHY

Strong, consistent Hills ruckman, P. Woolhead has won the "Times" Trophy for the footballer of the year in the South Suburban-Murray National Football League.

Woolhead, who polled 32 votes during the season, was closely followed by another Murray player, D. Racco (Waroona), who recorded 28 votes.

The all-round strength of Cannington is illustrated by their leading vote-getter, Chris Noble, who polled only 15 votes and was twelfth on the list. In all, seventeen Canning players recorded votes for the trophy.

The trophy, which has been donated by the "Times" group of newspapers over the South-West, is expected to be presented at the grand final at Pinjarra, on September 24.

Votes were cast through the season by a delegate elected from the opposing club.

It was noticeable that the weaker teams that did not reach the final four had outstanding players, whereas the stronger teams in the league rely more upon teamwork and all-round strength.

ARMADALE TIRED – BUT HAPPY

Club secretary Des Rainer, says all players were tired but happy after their victory over Maddington at Gosnells last Sunday.

There were no serious injuries, although Wilson Onions was somewhat battered and bruised and received three stitches in a head wound.

A barbecue was enjoyed by about 175 players and supporters and music was supplied by Mrs. Lammonby (piano) and Mr. Rolfe (drums and jazz effects) at the celebration function. Dancing was enjoyed and the celebrations continued until midnight.

During the evening, Cliff Lang, as Armadale's best player, was presented with a cash award from Mr. J. Gillam.

Several donations were made by generous supporters to the club.

The president thanked Wilson Onions for his fine job in lifting the club from the doldrums to the heights it has achieved and those present showed their appreciation in no uncertain manner.

In reply, Wilson said he did what he could because of his love for the game and the club and he urged all players to do likewise.

A players' tea held last Thursday night was attended by some 50 players. A three-course meal was enjoyed by all, followed by a film evening and a lecture by captain-coach Wilson Onions.

The annual dinner and dance will be held on September 29, the dinner to start at 6.30 p.m. sharp.

The club plans to give its players and officials a trip away at the end of the season, boat trips to Rottnest and Garden Island and a night river cruise during the summer months.

MADDINGTON OFFERS CONGRATULATIONS

The Maddington Football Club offers its congratulations to Armadale League and Kenwick Seconds teams for their victories last week; also to P. Woolhead (Hills) and D. Fitzpatrick (Waroona), for winning the fairest and best awards in the League and Seconds competition.

In last week's list of players stated as having played over 100 games for Maddington, the names of Mick Erceg (121) and Tony Buktenica (114) were unfortunately omitted. Erceg is in his 14th season with the club and was recently the recipient of an award for meritorious service. Buktenica is a former captain of the club.

The club is happy with the season's results, as both teams consist mostly of very young players and look forward to the future with confidence.

Club captain and centre half back John Weaver, won the trophy for the best player in the semi-final against Armadale. Winger Mitchell won a cash award.

The club was pleased to see life member, Mr. W. Orr, at the semi-final. The former W.A.N.F.L. secretary does not enjoy the best of health these days, but couldn't resist seeing Maddington in a semi-final. Mr. Orr was accompanied by his son David, who was president of the South Suburban Association when only 22 years of age.

The club will hold its wind-up dinner on October 14, in the Maddington Centenary Hall, when only members and invited guests will be admitted.

Rover Peter Coulthard suffered a broken nose in semi-final against Armadale last Sunday.

SOCIAL GAME

At its last meeting on August 25, the League granted permission to Waroona to play West Perth Thirds at Waroona on Sunday, September 24 (Grand Final Day). The visitors will be the guests of the Waroona Club at the Grand Final afterwards at Pinjarra.

CANNING CLUB APPRECIATIVE

Canning Football Club wishes to congratulate and thank the Editor, Mr. F. Semmens and his staff, for a fine publication of the Football Budget. The club hopes that the Budget meets with the success it deserves in putting the league and club matters before the public.

The club welcomes the return of Kevin Moore, after his car accident and a long stay in hospital. Kevin, who will no doubt, urge the team to great heights in the final round, is a ruckman and polled top votes in both early games this season before his untimely accident on the way home from training.

Ken McKenzie, another Canning player, is in hospital, having a cartilage removed. Another loss to Canning, Ken usually plays centre half forward.

Allan Smith was presented with his third daughter (Sandra Kay) by his wife Veronica, recently. Best wishes go from club members.

Canning Social Club held a games night in the club rooms last Friday and was enjoyed by all present. Congratulations to Bill Kersley, Harry Turner and Mrs. Betty Reid, all winning doubles on the occasion.

Congratulations, too, go to Jeff Morrissey, of the seconds, who after winning the club's fairest and best award, went on to be runner-up for the league trophy won by D. Fitzpatrick, of Waroona.

Mrs. Watson's run of luck in raffles continues, the latest being a beautifully decorated cake won at the first semi-final at Gosnells on Sunday.

KENWICK'S LUCKY WIN

Kicking weakness and inaccuracy in the forward area almost lost Kenwick the match against Maddington, a 17-man team, in the first semi-final of the league seconds competition at Gosnells last Sunday.

Maddington launched the initial attack, scored first and held the lead until late in the third quarter, when a point from Kenwick's D. Liddelow put the red and golds in front.

Kenwick held their slender lead on a ground which, in parts, had become waterlogged by continuous rain.

Final Scores: Kenwick 3.16 (34 points); Maddington 4.6 (30 points).

Best Players: Kenwick—J. Cushing, R. Baker (capt.), D. Giblett, B. Walker (vice-capt.), M. Davies and K. Wallis.

ALWAYS MISSED PREMIERSHIP SIDE

MANDURAH: Although he is leading footballer of the year in the South Suburban-Murray League, Hills ruckman Phil Woolhead has never played in a premiership side, despite 15 seasons of almost continuous football.

At 17 years of age, Woolhead started playing competitive football with Wembley Metropolitan Juniors, later Belmont Amateurs and the Sunday League.

His prowess won him a place in the Claremont League side. He then moved to Bridgetown, where he stripped for the Rovers and Nelson teams.

Woolhead returned to Pinjarra and again appeared for Claremont, later coached Pinjarra and last year was captain-coach of the Hills side, which battled its way to the final of the South Suburban-Murray League.

As a member of the Murray Association, before the merger with the South Suburban Association was contemplated, Woolhead was a playing member of the Murray teams which took part in South West Carnivals.

Woolhead, winner of this year's "Times" trophy for the "Footballer of the Year", who is butchering at Banksiadale, is married with three children, including a son who is a potential footballer of tomorrow.
